LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION

German and English (course availability will vary depending on degree programme).

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

German

Guest students are not required to be fluent in German, although some basic language skills are helpful. For courses taught in German, students should have at least B2 level CEFR.

English

- Bachelor – Master – CEMS: No formal English certificate required but guest students are expected to have an advanced level of English comparable to B2 level CEFR for courses taught in English.
- ISP: Non-native English speakers must have a minimum of TOEFL score of 89 (itb) or IELTS score 6.5. This requirement is waived for students enrolled in an English-taught MBA at the home university.

LANGUAGE COURSES

Bachelor • Master • CEMS • Swiss Mobility • THEMIS

Incoming exchange students are invited to enrol in a cost-free, seven-day intensive German language course before the semester starts and may continue with the course during the semester. Other language courses offered during the semester may include: Chinese, English, French, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, Spanish, Russian.

COURSE INFORMATION

Courses are offered in English in Business Administration, Economics, International Affairs, Social Sciences and Law. The definite course programme is available approximately one month before the semester starts. Guest students are strongly recommended to attend courses that correspond to their level of study at their home university.

Bachelor

Bachelor students may only attend master's courses if necessary and if prerequisites are fully met. However, students must confirm with their home university in advance if those courses are recognised for credit transfer towards their home degree studies.

Master's core courses are not open for guest undergraduate students. Further information can be found on our homepage Incoming Guest Students.

Master

Master's students may attend undergraduate courses if necessary, however, they must confirm with their home university in advance if those courses are recognised for credit transfer towards their home degree studies.

CEMS MIM

CEMS MIM course programme and descriptions can be found on: cems.org/hsg

COURSE REGISTRATION

Bachelor • Master • CEMS • Swiss Mobility • THEMIS

Course registration takes place through an online course registration procedure (bidding) about three weeks before the semester begins. Student Mobility Services will inform guest students about the process well in advance. Further information can be found on our homepage Incoming Guest Students.

Courses take place throughout the entire semester (13 weeks) and/or in block seminars.

REQUIRED WORKLOAD

Bachelor • Master • CEMS • Swiss Mobility • THEMIS

The workload per semester averages 24–30 ECTS credits. Guest students are required to take at least 16 ECTS credits and may not exceed 40 ECTS credits per semester.

1 ECTS corresponds to 30 course-related working hours (in and out of class). Credits are awarded only for successfully passed courses. Special workload requirements apply to CEMS and THEMIS according to their corresponding curriculum regulations.

EXAMINATIONS

Bachelor • Master • CEMS • Swiss Mobility • THEMIS

Examinations may be taken only for courses allocated through the bidding process.

Format

Examinations may be oral and/or written. Presentations/course participation may also constitute part of the final grade. The examination format is indicated in the course information sheet available on courses.unisg.ch

Examination periods

At the HSG there are two different types of examination periods. Decentral and Mid-Term examinations take place within or at the latest at the end of the lecture period. Central examinations take place after the end of the lecture period. Guest students are entitled to take all examinations within the lecture period (= same duration as decentral examination period). The examination type of each course is indicated in the course information sheet.

Examination periods

Autumn semester

Decentral & Mid-Term examinations September - December
Central examinations January - February

Spring semester

Decentral & Mid-Term examinations February - May
Central examinations June - July

Guest students enrolled for two consecutive semesters

Students staying for two consecutive semesters must take examinations for their first semester courses as specified in the course information sheet.

If a "central examination" is specified, guest students may schedule a "decentral guest examination" if the course instructor permits.
